Dear Mr Sutton,

Re: Request for a Trading Halt

King Island Scheelite Limited ("King Island Scheelite" or the "Company") (ASX: KIS) requests a halt in trading of King Island Scheelite's shares and options listed on the Australian Securities Exchange (ASX) from the commencement of trading on Wednesday 8 May 2019 pending the release of further information as requested by the ASX following the market announcement on the Economics and re-development of the Dolphin Open-Cut Project. In accordance with ASX Listing Rule 17.1, King Island Scheelite provides the following information:

- (a) The reasons for the trading halt are:
- (i) There is a pending announcement on further information required by the ASX regarding the redevelopment of the Dolphin Open-Cut Project presently being prepared by the Company;
 - (ii) There is a material risk that trading in King Island Scheelite's shares and options might occur while the market as a whole is not reasonably informed; and
 - (iii) The trading halt is needed to prevent a false or disorderly market;
- (b) King Island Scheelite requests that the trading halt lasts until the earlier of re-commencement of King Island Scheelite share and option trading on Friday 10 May 2019, or release of a market announcement regarding the Dolphin Open-Cut Project;
- (c) The trading halt, if granted, is expected to be ended by a market announcement regarding the Dolphin Open-Cut Project;
- (d) King Island Scheelite is not aware of any reason why the trading halt should not be granted; and
- (e) King Island Scheelite is not aware of any other information necessary to inform the market about the trading halt.

Yours sincerely,

Ian Morgan
Company Secretary
