Appointment of GM, Project Development and Operations

King Island Scheelite Limited (ASX: KIS) (“the Company”) is pleased to advise that as part of the proposed redevelopment of its 100% owned Dolphin Project in King Island Tasmania, the Company has appointed a General Manager of Project Development and Operations, Mr Charles Murcott.

Charles “Chas” Murcott is a Mining Engineer with over 25 years’ experience working within Australia and abroad, with a significant portion of his career in Tasmania. Prior to joining KIS, Chas was the Mining Manager at Kingrose Mining Limited (ASX: KRM) Way Linggo Project in Indonesia.

His previous experience in Tasmania includes Operations Manager with Venture Minerals Limited (ASX: VMS) as Operations Manager of the Riley DSO Project and Mining Manager/Alternate General Manager at BCD Resources Tasmania Mine at Beaconsfield.

Mr Murcott has a Bachelor of Mining Engineering (Hons) from University of Queensland, holds a 1st Class Mine Manager’s Certificate of Competency and holds a Diploma of Business - Frontline Management.

King Island Scheelite CEO, Johann Jacobs, said on the appointment:

“The appointment of Chas Murcott as General Manager of Project Development and Operations at our 100% owned Dolphin Tungsten Project marks a fantastic addition to the team on the ground in Tasmania. Following the recent release of the Feasibility Study and Revised Mineral Reserve Estimate, the Company is striving ahead with its strategy to redevelop Dolphin and securing someone of Chas’ caliber to be a part of that process is a real bonus for KIS.”
